WholeMind
RESILIENCE

Terms and Conditions

1. Who These Terms Apply To

WholeMind Resilience CIC is a community interest company registered in England and Wales, company number 17367582. Registered office: Carrow House, 301 King Street, Norwich, NR1 2TG. Contact: info@wholemindresilience.co.uk.

These Terms and Conditions apply to all bookings made with WholeMind Resilience CIC ("we," "us," "our"), including funded and concessionary places, which are subject to the same terms as any other booking unless expressly stated otherwise at the point of offer. Separate invoicing terms apply to corporate and organisational bookings, set out in Section 2.

2. Bookings and Payment

For individual public bookings (courses, sessions, and workshops), full payment is required upfront at the time of booking, processed via Zeffy. For corporate and organisational bookings (professionals & teams, systems & providers), payment terms are 30 days from invoice, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

3. Cancellations and Refunds

We want people to book with confidence, so our approach is:

- If, before a course or programme begins, it becomes clear that it isn't suitable for you (for example, following a pre-course assessment), we will offer a full refund or a transfer to a more suitable option.
- No refund is given for non-attendance ("no-shows") once a course or session has started.
- At our discretion, and in cases of genuine extenuating circumstances, we may transfer you to another suitable course date instead of processing a refund.

Statutory cancellation rights: if you book online or by phone, you have a legal right to cancel within 14 days of booking. If your course starts more than 14 days after you book, this right ends before the course begins. If you book a course that starts within 14 days, you ask us to begin within the cancellation period; if you then cancel before the 14 days end, we will refund you, minus a fair amount for any sessions already delivered. You lose this right once the course has been fully delivered.

To cancel, email info@wholemindresilience.co.uk, or use the cancellation form in the appendix.

Nothing in this section affects any other statutory right you may have that cannot lawfully be excluded.

4. Suitability and Health Disclosure

WholeMind Resilience offers non-clinical, preventive wellbeing and mindfulness services. We are not a substitute for clinical mental health treatment, therapy, or medical advice. Where a pre-course assessment or booking form asks about relevant health, wellbeing, or trauma history, it is your responsibility to disclose information that may be relevant to your safe participation. We use this information to help ensure a session is appropriate and safely delivered — not to exclude you unnecessarily.

Where relevant health or trauma history is not disclosed at booking or assessment, and this affects the appropriateness or outcome of a session, our responsibility is limited accordingly, as set out in Section 5.

5. Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, our liability to you in connection with any booking is limited to the amount you paid for that booking. We do not exclude or limit liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence, for fraud, or for anything else which cannot lawfully be excluded or limited under English law, including your statutory rights under the Consumer Rights Act 2015.

We are not liable for any indirect or consequential loss, or for outcomes arising from health, wellbeing, or trauma-related information that was not disclosed to us as described in Section 4.

6. Impact Evaluation

We may ask participants to take part in impact evaluation (for example, feedback forms or outcome measures) to help us understand and improve our services, and to report impact to funders and partners. Any data used in evaluation reporting is anonymised and cannot be used to identify you.

7. Photography, Video and Social Media

Photography or video may be taken at some sessions and events, and may be used publicly, including on our website and social media. We will only use images or footage in which you are identifiable with your specific, informed consent, sought separately from these Terms via our Photography, Video & Social Media Consent Policy. You may withdraw consent for future use at any time.

8. Age and Eligibility

Our services are for adults aged 18 and over, except where delivered within a school setting under that school's own safeguarding arrangements, or where a young person attends a public session in the company of a parent or guardian who retains responsibility for them throughout. See our Safeguarding & Child Protection Policy for further detail. This position may be reviewed as our services develop.

9. Complaints

If you're unhappy with any aspect of our service, please see our Complaints Policy for how to raise this with us.

10. Governing Law

These Terms are governed by the law of England and Wales, and any disputes will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.

11. Changes to These Terms

We may update these Terms from time to time. The version in effect at the time of your booking will apply to that booking.

12. Board Adoption
